The Fulneck Moravian Church Settlement overlooks the Tong and Fulneck Valley near Leeds in West Yorkshire. It is a site of great historic interest, dating back to 1743, but remains an active community with many residents and different organisations.

Address

Fulneck Moravian Church, Fulneck, Pudsey, West Yorkshire, LS28 8NT

Getting There

From the South – Leave the M62 at Junction 27 and take the A650 towards Bradford. At the second roundabout take the third exit onto Bradford & Wakefield Road (B6135) and then immediately turn left onto Tong Lane. Travel for approximately 2.5 miles, through Tong Village and turn left at the bottom of the hill onto Roker Lane. Continue for about 1.5 miles and the Settlement entrance (sign-posted) is on the left of the sharp right-hand bend.

Bus – X14 or X15 from Leeds City Centre or Pudsey Bus Station

Train – The nearest station is New Pudsey

If you are able to share transport with other friends this will be helpful as car parking is limited at the settlement. If you require information about Disabled Access please let Mrs O'Dea know.

Further Information

The Friends of the Phil are delighted to be able to offer this exceptional treat arranged under the auspices of our Honorary Vice President Dr Simon Lindley. As well as a tour of the deeply historic site including the church and museum, we reflect our own musical inheritance through the inclusion of a short informal concert by our former Chorus Master, great friend and now Leeds City Organist Darius Battiwalla and two of his children.

The visit will conclude with an Afternoon Tea for Gold Ticket Holders at “No 54 Tea Rooms and Antiques” which is highly rated on TripAdvisor.

Tickets

As we need to know numbers for both the tour and tea we ask you to pre-book and pay in advance for tickets. Numbers are limited so please book early. Mrs Rosemary O'Dea will take payments and issue tickets either at Phil Chorus Rehearsals or by post.

If booking by post: please use the booking form either on the back of this flier or distributed separately via e-mail or the Leeds Phil website at www.leedsphil.com and enclose a self-addressed and stamped envelope for Rosemary to send you your tickets.

The deadline for booking is Friday 20th July.

Cost

All Inclusive Gold Ticket (Concert, Tour and Tea) £20.00

Concert and Tour only £15.00

Please note there are no concessionary ticket prices. The seats in the church are unreserved.
